

Who We Are

Pinnacle Health Group (PHG) is one of the nation's largest physician recruitment firms with more than 15 years of successful, permanent placements all over the country. Our corporate headquarters is located in Atlanta, Georgia, with associate offices in Ohio, Missouri, Florida and Pennsylvania. With PHG's COO as the former president of the National Association of Physician Recruiters (NAPR) and our VP for Training and Business Development as a current board member, we are committed to delivering the highest level of service in the industry with integrity and ethical values.

What We Do

Pinnacle Health Group is a proactive, full-service firm with physician recruitment as its core business. We develop specific strategies for candidate procurement, practice need and search consultations with some of the most experienced recruiters in the industry. We have the capability to work with medical staff plans and keep healthcare groups competitive on a national scale.

Our success has been proven with outstanding and creative sourcing, expansive network, strategic planning, focused sales capabilities as well as precise and targeted approaches, such as:

- Full Service Search working all specialties, nationwide
- Industry leading Job Board and Recruitment Database through PhysicianCareer.com
- Targeted Telemarketing to enhance market visibility
- Training and Consulting (a free service for all clients)
- Recruitment Outsourcing for large volume applications
- Integrated Locum Tenens service

Our Advantage

Does the firm you work with now:

- Develop a specific, extremely targeted strategy for candidate procurement?
- Consult with you on each search before asking for your business?
- Work for you, or do they work for the candidates in trying to find them jobs?
- Have proven placement success with a job distribution service to key industry job boards and over 130,000 continuously updated physician contacts?
- Proactively talk to 10,000 physicians annually?

Quite simply, we offer you a better physician/client match! Pinnacle Health Group strives to yield outstanding results for you and gives you a competitive edge by saving you valuable time, improving your revenues and providing stability to your community. In fact, we have invested over $2 million in 2009 finding quality physicians and have even developed numerous sourcing techniques such as Digital Press to increase response rates. This benefit is directly handed down to you—our client.
